SMALL TALK OF A RAINY DAY.

Virginia News. Hotel Arrivals. Mayor Carr's Condition Critical. Found a Purchaser. New York Capitalists in the City.

Miss Geneva Lloyd, of Salem, is a guest of Mrs. M. D. Moss on Robertson street.

Mr. J. B. Tutwiler, a prominent Lynchburg merchant, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. J. T. Hill returned yesterday from a visit to his family at Fairmount, W. Va.

Alice Payne was fined $10 dollars by acting Mayor Evans for keeping a house of ill repute.

The employees of the Norfolk and Western railroad company will be paid off next Tuesday.

Mr. H. O. Rogers yesterday sold his horse, "Little Jim," to Mr. W. A. Welford, for a snug sum.

Mr. H. O. Williams, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. T. T. Fishburn, president of the National Exchange Bank, left last night on a short visit to Lynchburg.

Four cars for the narrow-gauge railroad leading to the River mines arrived here yesterday from Wilmington.

D. Horgan has returned from his trip and his shoe shop opposite the market house on Salem avenue is now open.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by the clerk of the Corporation to Mr. Thomas F. Gleason and Miss Lillian R. Wood.

Judge Charles Gratton, of Staunton, who is presiding over the proceedings of the Hustings Court, is stopping at Hotel Felix.

A number of cars loaded with steel rails and machinery for Southern points arrived here yesterday over the Shenandoah Valley railroad.

T. K. Jennings was knocked senseless yesterday by a heavy piece of falling timber while at work on a house in the southwestern part of the city.

Mr. George Martin, a popular type of this city, returned yesterday afternoon from Pennsylvania, with his bride, and will make the Magic City his home.

Dr. T. W. Simmons, of Union Hall, Va., is in the city. He contemplates locating here in the future and has shown his good faith by purchasing a number of lots.

A collection has been taken up at the residence of the late John J. Conaway and children of the late John Conaway, and between $800 and $1,000 is said to have been raised.

Mr. Charles Camp, formerly of this city but now engaged in business at Dillon Mill, will leave for Franklin county today after a stay of a week or more with friends here.

The net proceeds of the two benefits tendered the widow of the late John Conaway by Manager Becker and the Gny Brothers Tuesday and Wednesday evenings amounted to $80.50. These gentlemen deserve much praise for their liberality.

James Farris was killed near Troutville, on the Shenandoah Valley railroad, Wednesday night. Both legs were mangled off and he was otherwise badly mangled. He was taken to the depot and died in a few hours after the accident.

Mr. E. C. Welsh announces himself a candidate for the office of City Sergeant. Mr. Welsh possesses all the requisites for the position, and would make an excellent officer. He is well and favorably known to the people of this city who can well afford to give him their suffrages.

In muddy weather a good plan to keep the sidewalks clean is to use the hose liberally, something which is very much needed on the west side of Commerce street. A raising of the stepping stones from Huff Andrews & Thomas to Lawsons' on the south side of Commerce would also be a great convenience to pedestrians.

A number of New York capitalists of whom Mr. R. T. Wilson was the leading spirit, arrived here yesterday evening on the Norfolk and Western west bound passenger train, en route to the Cripple creek mines, of Carroll county, in which they are largely interested. After remaining two or three days they will return home by way of this city.

Mr. J. M. Brosius, of Atlanta, Ga., the inventor of the Brosius mangle sewing machine, is in the city and will have his wonderful machine, that runs by springs, on exhibition at the store of Snyder, Hassler & McBain. Ladies desiring to see it can call today. It is indeed something that all ladies who have sewing to do should be interested in, consequently should call and see it without fail.

Hotel Arrivals.

 The grocery trade of Alexandria approximates $500,000 a year.

It was reported at the Senate on the 15th that Mr. Sullivan, the postmaster at Harrisonburg, Va., whose confirmation has been held up so long, will soon be given a title clear to the office he holds.

A corps of surveyors will be put to work at once surveying the Roanoke and Southern railroad line via Rocky Mount.

Found a Purchaser.

The mammoth No. 20, brogans, which have ornamented the front window of Wright & Stoll's boot and shoe store on Jefferson street for the past three years found a purchaser yesterday in the person of Peter Mitchell, a colored man hailing from Halifax county. Peter, though a black man of limited education, is nevertheless, as his purchase of the brogans shows, an individual of great understanding.

A Sound Legal Opinion.
 E. Bainbridge Munday, esq., county attorney, Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother, also, was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, and was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied that Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilkerson, of Horse Cave, Ky., writes, in like testimony, saying, "He positively believes that he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and all kinds of Liver and Stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50 cts. and $1.00 at Budwell & Christian's drug store.

Ruby's Letter.

A letter from Mr. J. W. Ruby, Union City, Ind., says: "I have used your Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Cough Cure and find it a complete cure for deep-seated cold. It is more powerful than two of our most 'skilful' physicians. My children had 'the Whooping Cough,' and with the 'aid of your Cough Cure, they had it 'very light compared with the neighborhood's children who did not take it. I believe it to be the best cough cure 'in the market.' So it is. A large bottle only $1.00. Clarke's Flax Soap for the Skin. It leads them all. Price, 25 cents. Cough Cure and Soap for sale by Johnson & Johnson, drug gists."

WE CAN AND DO.

Guarantee Dr. Acker's Blood Elixir, for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilis poisoning, ulcers, eruptions and pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Sold by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

A CHILD KILLED.
 Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its painful troubles by using Dr. Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

An Eminent Doctor's Prescription.
 Dr. C. P. Henry, Chicago, Ill., who has practiced medicine many years, says: Last spring he used and prescribed Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Skin Cure in 40 or 50 cases, and never knew a case where it failed to cure. "I know of no remedy I can rely on so implicitly. Positive cure or all diseases of the skin. Applied externally. Clarke's Flax Soap is best for babies. The Skin Cure $1.00 and 25 cents. At Johnson & Johnson's drug store."

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
 It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken, and do not gripe. Sold by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS.
 Is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Dr. Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for lung troubles. Sold on a positive guarantee at 25 and 50 cents by Budwell & Christian.
